

Diary Booking

Chambers operates a strict policy against “double booking”. If a client requests a diary booking which conflicts with an existing diary entry, the existing entry will be disclosed and the second booking will be accepted only with the client’s full consent. The clerks have excellent working relationships with the High Court’s administrative staff, and are usually able to ensure that hearings are allocated convenient dates.

For further information please contact the clerks.