

Brick Court barristers called to the Bar of Ireland

14/07/2017 (Barrister News, EU/Competition, Chambers News)

Five members of Brick Court Chambers were called to the Bar of Ireland yesterday, so they will have rights of audience in the European Court of Justice and General Court even if the UK is no longer a Member State.

Mark Hoskins QC, Jemima Stratford QC, Maya Lester QC, Victoria Wakefield and Sarah Abram passed the examination and were called by the Chief Justice at the Four Courts in Dublin.
