

Landmark Cases in Public Law

04/05/2017 (Barrister News, Public Law)

Landmark Cases in Public Law, published on 1 June by Hart Publishing, contains a series of essays by public law specialists throwing light on the driving forces behind 14 landmark public law cases over the centuries including the high profile Brexit case of Miller. Richard Gordon QC, who appeared in Miller, has contributed a piece on one of our earliest constitutional cases, Entick v Carrington, entitled All the King's Horses.
