Practice Overview

Daniel Jowell KC is one of the Bar's foremost silks for both commercial law and competition law.

He is highly ranked in multiple categories of the legal directories, in which he has recently been described as "one of the go-to silks for the absolute biggest cases", "a very charismatic courtroom advocate" who is "commercially aware and very popular with clients", and as "a brilliant advocate and an incredibly nice guy to boot." (Chambers & Partners 2026). He has experience at all levels of the court and tribunal system and has also appeared in a number of major international commercial arbitrations. His practice spans all aspects of commercial law and competition law, including commercial judicial review and group litigation.

He was awarded Chambers & Partners' Competition law "Silk of the Year" for 2025 and was one of six KCs to appear in the Lawyer's "Hot 100" 2025.

Commercial

Daniel practises across all aspects of commercial law and is particularly well known for his experience in international commercial disputes involving conflicts of law or foreign law. He has extensive experience in joint venture disputes and in challenges to jurisdiction. He is also noted for his work in the energy sector where he is "experienced across the run of energy regulatory work and straight energy work." (Chambers & Partners, Energy 2025), and noted as "[a] hugely experienced advocate with an acute sense of the points which will fly." (Legal 500, Energy, 2025) and as a "super advocate" who "makes his points very firmly, but politely." (Chambers & Partners, Energy 2024). He is a veteran of numerous heavy-weight commercial disputes in both the High Court and Court of Appeal, including the following reported cases:

Competition

In addition to his commercial practice, Daniel Jowell KC has long been known as "one of the best competition silks around" (Chambers and Partners 2016) giving "the clearest and best strategic advice of anyone at the competition Bar" (The Legal 500 2022). He was winner of the Chambers and Partners award of Competition law "Silk of the Year" in both 2015 and 2025. The latest directories note that he has "an encyclopaedic knowledge of competition law" (Chambers & Partners, Competition, 2025) and that "Daniel's knowledge of UK and EU competition law is unsurpassed. He provides clear, detailed and pragmatic advice. He is a stand out advocate both in terms of identifying the best points to run, but also knowing when to change tack." (Legal 500, EU Law, 2025). He has been instructed on many of the major competition law damages actions in the High Court and CAT (including several collective actions) and in a number of challenges to the decisions of regulators, including those of Ofgem and the CMA.
