Practice Overview

Matthew is a leading competition law junior. Matthew has been described in the Directories as "a fantastic junior", "an extremely good advocate" and "definitely one to watch."

Matthew has been instructed in many of the most high-profile competition disputes in recent years, including the Trucks litigation, Phones 4u v EE and ors, Coll v Google, Kent v Apple, PROFAA v FIFA, CAA Base v the FA and FIFA, Roberts v United Utilities and Gutmann v Virgin Media/O2. He has particular experience in the collective proceedings regime in the Competition Appeal Tribunal and in competition law issues arising in the context of sport. Matthew acts both led and unled, and regularly appears as an advocate in the Competition Appeal Tribunal and the High Court.

Highlights of current and recent instructions include:

- Dr Rachael Kent v Apple Inc – acting for the class representative in collective proceedings against Apple arising out of alleged abuse of dominance in connection with the App store (with Mark Hoskins KC).
- Elizabeth Helen Coll v Alphabet Inc – acting for the class representative in collective proceeding against Google arising out of alleged abuse of dominance in connection with the Google Play store (with Mark Hoskins KC and Jennifer MacLeod).
- The Trucks Litigation – acting for Iveco in defence of multiple follow-on claims in the Competition Appeal Tribunal estimated to be worth over £1 billion, including two applications for a collective proceedings order (with Charles Hollander KC, Tony Singla KC and Aaron Khan).
- Phones4U v Telefonica & ors : acting for O2/Telefonica in the litigation brought by the administrators of Phones4U regarding an alleged collective withdrawal from Phones4U by mobile network operators (with Mark Hoskins KC and Sarah Abram KC).

- Roberts v United Utilities: acting for United Utilities in proposed collective proceedings arising out of alleged abuse of dominance in connection with the reporting of pollution incidents by water companies to Ofwat (with Mark Hoskins KC).
- Gutmann v Telefonica UK Limited: acting for Virgin Media/O2 in proposed collective proceedings arising out of alleged “loyal penalties” on mobile phone contracts (with Mark Hoskins KC and Jacob Rabinowitz).

In addition to his competition law practice, Matthew has experience across Chambers’ specialisms including data protection law, commercial law (including arbitration), public law, and public international law.

Prior to joining chambers, Matthew worked for a number of years in the international arbitration group at Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr, a leading US firm. Matthew graduated from the University of Oxford (St. Hugh’s) with a first in history and subsequently achieved a first on the LLM at the University of Cambridge (St. John’s), graduating third in his year.
