Practice Overview

A leading junior, Oliver Jones was a member of Brick Court for ten years and now practises in Australia. He was recommended by the major directories across commercial law (Legal 500, Chambers UK Bar, Chambers Global), public and administrative law (Chambers UK Bar) and public international law (Legal 500, Chambers UK Bar). In 2016, Oliver was ranked as one of the top ten commercial juniors at the bar under eight years' call (Legal 500).

Oliver regularly appeared in heavyweight commercial litigation and his recent cases included some of the most substantial claims coming before the UK courts: Law Debenture Trust v Ukraine [2017] 3 WLR 667 (obtaining summary judgment against Ukraine for US$3 billion in relation to Eurobonds held by the Russian Federation); HP & Autonomy v Michael Lynch & Sushovan Hussain (acting for the former CFO of Autonomy in his US$5 billion dispute with HP over alleged accounting fraud in the lead up to HP's acquisition of Autonomy); Single Buoy Moorings Inc v Zurich Insurance plc, Infrassure & Ors (acting for the insurers in a US$1 billion coverage dispute concerning damage to an offshore oil platform in the North Sea); and Slater & Gordon v Watchstone plc (acting for Slater & Gordon in its £600 million claim against Watchstone for fraud and breach of warranty).

Oliver was also consistently instructed in high-profile public law challenges to decisions of regulators, government departments and other public bodies across diverse areas including tax, gambling and housing, including: R (on the application of Drax Power Ltd) v HM Treasury [2017] 2 WLR 194 (a £1 billion challenge to changes to the Climate Change Levy); Paulley v FirstGroup [2017] UKSC 4 (a disability discrimination challenge to the wheelchair policy of bus companies); Nzolameso v City of Westminster [2015] UKSC 22 (a challenge to a local authority's practice of housing homeless persons outside their districts); and R (Gibraltar Betting & Gaming Association) v Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport [2014] EWHC 3236 (Admin) (a challenge to new licensing provisions in relation to remote betting operators).

Oliver also has extensive experience of international law and State immunity issues in various contexts, including: Belhaj v The Rt. Hon Jack Straw & Ors [2017] UKSC 3 (in relation to whether claims for mistreatment involving UK officials are blocked by State immunity or the act of State doctrine); R (Noor Khan) v Secretary of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs [2014] EWCA Civ 24 (acting for victims of US drone strikes in a challenge to the legality of reported GCHQ involvement in those attacks); Mid-East Sales v Pakistan [2014] EWHC 1457 (Comm) (in relation to Pakistan's responsibility for its nuclear weapons development programme); and SerVaas v Republic of Iraq & Ors [2012] UKSC 40 (in relation to the immunity of Iraqi assets from execution).

He was a member of the Attorney General's B Panel of Junior Counsel to the Crown, the Attorney General's Panel of Special Advocates and the Attorney General's specialist Public International Law B Panel.

Oliver is also a member of the bar of the British Virgin Islands where he has appeared in a series of asset freezing and jurisdiction disputes.
