OVERVIEW

The core of Richard Lord's practice for over 25 years has been commercial litigation and arbitration, with a particular specialisation in insurance and reinsurance, dry shipping, commodities, energy and professional negligence claims. He has appeared in and advised on numerous cases in tribunals from The House of Lords (Supreme Court) to the High Court in The British Virgin Islands. His 'home territories' are the Commercial Court in London and International Arbitrations, including ICC, LCIA, LMAA and Bermuda form arbitrations.

He acts as a mediator and arbitrator, has written textbooks on Bills of Lading and the Arbitration Act and has lectured and written extensively, as well as giving expert evidence on English law for foreign courts. Recent experience includes a number of total loss marine insurance claims, insurance disputes arising out of Hurricane Katrina, numerous charterparty disputes as well as more general commercial litigation and a jurisdiction battle in the House of Lords (Supreme Court).

In 2017 he is shortlisted by Chambers & Partners as Insurance Silk of the Year.

PRACTICE AREAS

Main specialities are dry shipping, arbitration, insurance and reinsurance, professional negligence and commodity and energy disputes. Also has expertise in climate change liability.

COMMERCIAL

Insurance and re-insurance have always been one of Richard Lord's key specialisations, especially in silk. He has advised and represented most of the leading European and UK insurers as well as numerous brokers, Lloyd's syndicates, U.S. insurers and high profile
