Practice Overview

Aarushi practises in all areas of commercial and public law. At five years call, Aarushi has made oral submissions in the Supreme Court, appeared in numerous cases in the Court of Appeal and been instructed unled (and cross-examined witnesses) in the High Court. In commercial litigation, Aarushi is ranked as a "Rising Star" in Legal 500 and an "Up & Coming Junior" in Chambers and Partners. In public law, she is a member of the Attorney General's Civil Panel (C Panel).

Aarushi is unique in developing a generalist practice across both commercial and public law. She is also regularly instructed to act or advise on claims concerning financial services, EU relations law, and privacy and data protection.

Before coming to the Bar, Aarushi was a dual-qualified solicitor in Australia and England & Wales. Aarushi graduated with an LLB (First Class) from the University of Sydney and an LLM (First Class) from the University of Cambridge. At Cambridge she ranked first in two subjects (Legal History and the Economics of Law and Regulation), and was awarded the President's Prize for significant distinction in law at Queens' College.
