Practice Overview

Alec Haydon has acquired a broad range of experience acting in significant, high profile, high value commercial disputes involving a wide variety of issues and litigants. At home cross-examining factual and expert witnesses, arguing points of law or the construction of contracts including insurance coverage issues, or dealing with complex interlocutory applications.

Recognised in the directories as a Leading Silk in Commercial Dispute Resolution, Civil Fraud, Banking & Finance and Energy & Natural Resources, he is regularly instructed in cases before the Business and Property Courts as well as in International Arbitrations under LCIA, ICC and CIA Rules.

Commercial

Alec is regularly instructed in a wide range of commercial disputes, many of which involve jurisdictional challenges and applications for WFOs or other injunctive relief. He is recognised as having good commercial judgment and an ability to identify and focus on the key issues in a case from an early stage of the proceedings. He is highly numerate and able to grapple with the detail of complex quantum disputes.

Privatbank v Kolomoisky & Bogolyubov (ongoing) – Acting for Igor Kolomoisky, a Ukrainian oligarch, defending a claim brought in London by a large nationalised Ukrainian bank claiming in excess of USD 2 billion alleged to have been misappropriated while he and Mr Bogolyubov owned the bank.

Candy Ventures SARL v Aaqua BV & Robert Bonnier (ongoing) – Acting for CVS pursuing a claim in deceit for damages caused by an investment in Aaqua BV and representing CVS and Nick Candy on an inquiry into damages alleged to have been caused by a short-lived WFO.

Apache North Sea v Euroil Exploration [2020] EWCA Civ 1397 – Acted for Euroil at first instance and on appeal successfully defeating a claim brought by Apache seeking an excessive contribution to the cost of drilling “earn-in” wells under a Farm Out Agreement.

Tecnicas Reunidas v Korean Development Bank [2020] EWHC 968 (TCC) – A case resolving the relationship between express non-documentary conditions in a demand guarantee and the terms of the URDG when incorporated by reference.

Cardamon v McAlister [2019] EWHC 1200 (Comm) – Successfully recovered the maximum amount of damages for breach of warranty in a Share Purchase Agreement for the purchaser of an insurance company complaining of misleading information in its accounts.

DP World Djibouti FZCO v Port de Djibouti SA [2018] EWHC 2340 (Comm) – Successfully obtaining an injunction under section 44(3) of the Arbitration Act 1996 preventing PDSA from taking control of a joint venture company, pending resolution by a London-seated arbitration tribunal of the dispute as to whether the parties’ agreement been terminated under Djibouti law

International Commercial Arbitration

A significant number of Alec’s commercial cases are resolved by international arbitration. Many of these disputes are confidential and so the parties to recent cases are identified anonymously.

C v S, M v S (2023) – Successfully defended a FTSE 100 company in separate ad hoc Swiss arbitrations from high value claims (in excess of USD 100m) for breaches of licence agreements and mismanagement of food and beverage outlets.

H v M (2021) – Acted in an ICC Arbitration, successfully obtaining an award for unpaid fees for a UK based project management consultant from a foreign oil company in relation to a project to supervise the construction of an oil storage vessel in Korea and Singapore.

AM v KM (2020) – Successfully representing the Claimant in a dispute in the LCIA between two Russian brothers concerning ownership and control of a Cypriot company with a commercial property portfolio in Moscow requiring inventive applications to be made for injunctive relief.

E v M (2017) – Successfully obtaining an Award in a CIA Arbitration for payment of a commission to a company which had introduced a source of funding by way of bond issue.

Civil fraud

Alec enjoys the forensic challenge presented by fraud cases, the strategic issues for both claimants and defendants, and the opportunities for cross-examination that arise.

Alta Trading (formerly Arcadia) v Bosworth (2024) – Brought in to lead the Claimants’ counsel team for the 12 week fraud trial involving claims for dishonest breach of fiduciary duty, dishonest assistance and conspiracy brought by an oil trading company against its former CEO and CFO and others in connection with the acquisition of oil from state owned oil companies in Nigeria and Equatorial Guinea.

Privatbank v Kolomoisky (2023) – Acted, with other silks, for Mr Kolomoisky throughout a 10 week trial defending a claim brought in London by a large nationalised Ukrainian bank claiming in excess of USD 2 billion alleged to have been misappropriated while he and Mr Bogolyubov owned the bank.

Candy Ventures SARL v Aaqua BV & Robert Bonnier (ongoing) – Acting for CVS pursuing a claim in deceit for damages caused by an investment in Aaqua BV and representing CVS and Nick Candy on an inquiry into damages alleged to have been caused by a short-lived WFO.

Pinchuk v Bogolyubov (2016) – Acted for Mr Bogolyubov, a Ukrainian oligarch, in a dispute concerning rights to the Kryvyi Rih Iron Ore Plant in Ukraine.

Alliance Bank JSC v Zhunus and Arip [2015] EWHC 714 (Comm) – acting for a Kazakh businessman, successfully discharging a WFO obtained by the bank and setting aside a claim service of a claim form alleging a fraudulent scheme to deprive the bank of valuable security for loans.

Energy and natural resources

Alec is interested in the science behind energy disputes and enjoys getting to grips with the expert issues that arise.

Alta Trading (formerly Arcadia) v Bosworth (2024) – Brought in to lead the Claimants’ counsel team for the 12 week trial of claims brought by an oil trading company against its former CEO and CFO and others in connection with the acquisition of oil from state owned oil companies in Nigeria and Equatorial Guinea.

Apache North Sea v Euroil Exploration [2020] EWCA Civ 1397 – Acted for Euroil at first instance and on appeal successfully defeating a claim brought by Apache seeking an excessive contribution to the cost of drilling “earn-in” wells under a Farm Out Agreement. The case involved the relationship between terms of the FOA and the Joint Operating Agreement to which Euroil had become party on acquiring its interest.

Rosserlane v Credit Suisse [2017] EWCA Civ 91 – Led by Helen Davies KC, successfully defended Credit Suisse at first instance and on appeal from a claim for compensation for the alleged sale at an undervalue of a company owning an interest in an oil field in Azerbaijan, cross-examining the expert reservoir engineer.

Skanska v Ecotricity (2017) – successfully deterring a claim against Ecotricity in respect of a failed wind farm venture at the pre-action mediation.

BG v Talisman & Idemitsu [2015] EWHC 110 (Comm) – acted for Idemitsu in its dispute with BG and Talisman concerning the distribution of expenses incurred by Talisman in operating a floating, production, storage and offloading vessel in the North Sea to process crude oil from two neighbouring fields.

Electrobel International Holdings BV v Teesside Power Holdings Limited – acted for the sellers of shares in the company owning Teesside Power Station defending allegations of breach of warranty relating to various assets material to the operation of the power station including steam turbines and a subsea gas pipeline.
