Practice Overview

Fionn Pilbrow is a highly-regarded and well-established commercial silk, with an enviably broad commercial practice. He is above all a litigator and an advocate, applying that expertise across the broad spectrum of commercial work, in both litigation and arbitration.

He is listed across multiple categories of the legal directories, where he has been described, in recent years as: "superb"; "A charismatic performer, in and out of court"; "Now a real leader in terms of having the confidence, stamina and client manner to take on the biggest and most complex cases, he is quick, fluent and with an eye to what is likely to appeal to the Tribunal"; "strikes like a lightning bolt, he identifies one single crack in a case that will destroy the other side"; "leagues ahead of his contemporaries, the opponent everyone dreads. The best type of barrister; superb to work with"; "razor-sharp, easy to get along with, and he fights hard but is wholly fair – a joy to see him in action. It has always been clear to me that Fionn commands the respect of the highest profile practitioners at the Bar – he's a star."

Current or recent court work includes:

- UC Rusal v (1) Whiteleave Holdings (2) Vladimir Potanin (3) Crispian Holdings (4) Roman Abramovich: Fionn is instructed for the Claimant in this extremely heavy and hard-fought litigation.
- Azima / Al Sadeq / Mikadze: Fionn is instructed as leading Counsel for Neil Gerrard in the Al Sadeq / Quzmar / Stokoe Partnership litigation, as well as in the Azima litigation and Mikadze litigation.
- Al Aggad v Al Aggad & others: Fionn acts for the Third Defendant in this Commercial Court case arising out of a dispute relating to a substantial Saudi Arabian business.
- FRC v KPMG & others: Fionn acted for one of the individual defendants in the trial of allegations that the FRC was dishonestly misled in its investigations of the Carillion audit.

Fionn also acts frequently in arbitration. His ongoing or recent cases include arbitrations under LCIA, ICC, SIAC and LMAA rules and ad hoc arbitrations pursuant to the Arbitration Act 1996. He also has experience of appearing in various specialist and regulatory tribunals and proceedings (e.g. Takeover Panel and FRC proceedings).

Commercial

Fionn is a well-established commercial silk and is recommended by Chambers and Partners, Chambers Global and the Legal 500 as a leading silk for commercial litigation / commercial dispute resolution.

All Fionn's work is "commercial litigation". He is regularly instructed in commercial disputes, big and small, international and domestic, arising out of all industry sectors and professions, in both litigation and arbitration. He has particular experience of high-value, high-profile, high-pressure disputes. As such he has extensive experience of all aspects of the preparation and conduct of heavy trials, involving substantial factual dispute and/or extensive expert evidence, as well as of all types of jurisdictional and interlocutory dispute. He is an experienced advocate, well used to having conduct of trials and interlocutory matters, in the Commercial Court and other divisions of the High Court, and the appellate courts.

For examples of his cases, see: the "Practice Overview" (for current or recent cases); the "Reported Cases" section below; and indeed all the other specific sections below. By way of example, however, Fionn has been instructed in recent years in: the Azima litigation; the Al Sadeq litigation; the Arcadia v Bosworth litigation; the various rounds of the MMG v Glencore litigation. Before that, notable instructions include: Cherney v Deripaska; the TNK-BP litigation; Fiona Trust v Privalov; and Sky v EDS.

Arbitration

Fionn is recommended by Chambers and Partners, Chambers Global and the Legal 500 as a leading silk for international arbitration, and a substantial proportion of Fionn's commercial practice takes place in arbitration. Whilst the majority of Fionn's work in arbitration is as counsel, he also sits as an arbitrator and accepts appointments as a sole arbitrator or member of a tribunal.

Recent or ongoing work includes Fionn acting:

- For the claimant in an LCIA arbitration relating to the purchase of two gold mines in Burkina Faso.
- For the claimant in an LCIA arbitration relating to a nickel mine in the Dominican Republic
- For an Austrian bank in an ICC arbitration;

- For oil traders in a number of SIAC arbitrations;
- For a restaurant franchisee in an ad hoc arbitration against the franchisor;
- For a Russian oligarch in an LCIA arbitration;
- For a Swiss oil trader in a London arbitration under LMAA Rules;
- For a major European bank in an ICC arbitration against a central European state;
- For BP in the TNK-BP dispute between BP and its Russian joint venture partners arising out of BP's proposed strategic alliance with Rosneft, in a series of arbitrations under the UNCITRAL Rules (with a Stockholm seat).

Equally, Fionn has experience of applications to the English courts in support of or in connection with domestic and international arbitrations, including applications for interim relief and injunction, applications to recognise and enforce foreign awards and challenges to awards.

Banking and finance

Fionn is recommended by Chambers and Partners and Legal 500 as a leading silk for Banking & Finance.

Much of Fionn's commercial practice involves banking and finance disputes. Recent work includes:

- Commercial Court claim for a US-based fund seeking repayment under a participation agreement;
- Commercial Court claim for an English bank in respect of helicopters it had acquired when enforcing security arrangements;
- A claim for an Austrian bank defending itself against allegations arising out of the manner in which it had collected in a debt;
- Acting in disputes in the Commercial Court and also in the Cayman Islands arising out of the sale of a fund of funds business;
- Acting for a German bank in a series of claims arising from the sale of its interest in Formula 1;
- Acting for European Bank in a claim under a performance guarantee agreement against a Central European State;
- Acting for a lender in an appeal raising issues as to the recoverability of swap agreement break costs;
- Acting against a major bank in substantial breach of confidence case in the Chancery Division;

Fionn also has experience of dealing with the Takeover Panel, particularly in "acting in concert" matters.

For examples of his cases, see the "Reported Cases" section below.

Energy and natural resources

Fionn is recommended by Chambers Global, Chambers and Partners and the Legal 500 as a leading silk for Energy & Natural Resources.

Fionn acts regularly in disputes arising in the energy and natural resources fields. Indeed, his specialism in the field led to him being nominated as Energy Junior of the Year at the 2019 Legal 500 Bar Awards. Recent or particularly notable case include Fionn acting:

- For a gold mining company in a dispute arising out of the sale of two gold mines in Burkina Faso;
- For a mining company in a dispute arising out of the sale of a nickel mine in the Dominican Republic;
- For the operator of the Sullom Voe Terminal in a number of disputes arising under its various operating agreements;
- For North Sea oil company in various disputes arising under long-term agreements;
- For an oil company in a dispute arising out of an oil concession in Egypt;
- For a mining company in a dispute arising out of the sale of a copper mine in Peru;
- For a Nigerian oil company in a c.$1.5 billion fraud claim;
- For an oil major in a €1 billion claim for breach of contract and breach of confidence;
- For a North Sea oil company in a dispute under a Farm-In Agreement;
- For an oil trading company in a $350 million fraud claim;
- For BP in the TNK-BP dispute between BP and its Russian joint venture partners arising out of BP's proposed strategic alliance with Rosneft;
- For a major European energy company in a dispute arising out of the potential exploitation of gas fields in Kurdistan;
- For ENRC in a dispute relating to a Brazilian iron ore mining project;
- For Glencore in a claim arising out of the supply of crude oil to Romania in the 1990s

For examples of his cases, see the "Reported Cases" section below.

Civil fraud

Fionn has acted in numerous civil fraud matters and is recommended by both Chambers and Partners and the Legal 500 as a leading silk for Civil Fraud.

He is often consulted in the early, investigatory stages of fraud cases, and has experience of obtaining and resisting freezing injunctions (domestic and worldwide, both pre- and post-judgment) and search orders. He also has experience of dealing with forensic IT and document examination expert evidence.

Recent or notable work in this field includes the following:

- Acting for Neil Gerrard in the in the Azima litigation, the Al Sadeq / Quzmar / Stokoe Partnership litigation and the Mikadze litigation;
- Acting for the sellers of a company bringing allegations of deceit against the purchasers and seeking damages of €270 million;
- Acting for a pharmaceutical company bringing allegations of deceit and conspiracy against one of its counterparties in relation to the claiming of rebates;
- Acting for the purchasers of a manufacturing company alleging deceit on the part of the sellers;
- Appearing for the Defendants in a bribery / conspiracy case said to have led to the collapse of a FTSE 250 listed company (Afren) and giving rise to a claim of c. $1.5 billion;
- Acting Arcadia Petroleum in a $350 million fraud case involving freezing injunctions, proprietary injunctions and issues of jurisdiction;
- Acting for Glencore at first instance ([2015] EWHC 666 (Comm)) and in the Court of Appeal ([2016] EWCA Civ 778 and [2017 EWCA Civ 195) in Petrom v Glencore;
- Acting for Bayern in its claims arising out of the bribery of one its board members in connection with the sale of its interest in Formula 1;

For examples of his cases, see the "Reported Cases" section below.

Professional negligence

Fionn is recommended as a leading silk in Professional Negligence by the Legal 500.

Over the years, Fionn has advised on cases involving allegations of negligence on the part of insurance brokers, accountants, auditors, solicitors, valuers, financial advisers and liquidators. In recent years, he has:

- Acted for one of the auditors of Carillion in the disciplinary hearings brought by the FRC alleging dishonest misleading of an Audit Quality Review Team;
- Acted for administrative receivers accused of breaches of equitable duty;
- Acted for accountants alleged to have provided negligent tax advice;
- Acted for the claimant bank in a series of over-valuation claims against surveyors;
- Acted for solicitors facing allegations of negligent conduct (and regulatory/disciplinary proceedings) in connection with a takeover.

For examples of his cases, see the "Reported Cases" section below.

Shipping and commodities

Fionn is recommended as a leading silk in Shipping & Commodities by Chambers Global, Chambers and Partners and the Legal 500.

Over the years, Fionn has appeared in many commodities, international trade and "dry" shipping cases, both in litigation and in arbitration. As such, he has experience both of the full range of issues that arise in such cases and of disputes under, and cases up to the Commercial Court arising out of, various different arbitral rules, including ICC, LCIA, SIAC, LMAA, GAFTA and FOSFA.

He acted for the successful Charterers in Gard Shipping AS v Clearlake Shipping Pte Ltd (the "Zaliv Baikal"), appeared in Standard Chartered Bank v Dorchester LNG (2) Limited (the "Erin Schulte") in both the Commercial Court and the Court of Appeal and represented the claimant Russian state-owned shipping companies in the Fiona Trust litigation.

For examples of his cases, see the "Reported Cases" section below.

Insurance and reinsurance

Over the years, Fionn has advised on and appeared in a wide range of insurance and reinsurance disputes, both in the High Court and in arbitration. Experience in the last two years include:

- Acting for the insured in a c. £15m claim under a new build property policy
- Acting for a fronting insurer in simultaneous disputes with its coverholder (in the Commercial Court) and its quota share reinsurer (in arbitration)

- "Fionn is a very strong advocate who has a relaxed but persuasive manner in court. He is able to win judges over without unnecessary aggression against his opposition. His advice is also always commercial and focuses on the big points while taking account of all the detailed evidence." (Legal 500 2027, Energy)
- "I think that Fionn is a real star of the future. Initially, the plan had been that, in due course, we would bring in a senior silk later in the case, but Fionn has proved to be exceptional, and there is now no question of adding another silk. He is always available and, if not immediately, will respond within a matter of hours. He is happy to work with us as one team (i.e., there is not a rigid Counsel/solicitor demarcation), and, as a consequence, gets more client exposure than would normally be the case. The clients like him enormously; he presents well to them and has been able to convey legal concepts in a way that they easily understand." (Legal 500 2027, Commercial Litigation)
- "He loves being on his feet in court and he is persuasive." (Chambers & Partners 2026, International Arbitration: General Commercial & Insurance)
