Practice Overview

Gianna is developing a broad practice across all areas of Chambers' expertise, with a particular focus on public and public international law. She joined Brick Court in September 2025 following the successful completion of her pupillage under the supervision of Hugo Leith, William Hooper and Tim Johnston.

Gianna's current and recent instructions include:

- Kelkoo.com (UK) Limited and others v Google UK Limited and others: Acting for Kelkoo and Ciao in competition actions against Google relating to the market for comparison shopping services (on a team led by Daniel Jowell KC and Sarah Love KC, instructed by Linklaters LLP).
- Anon v Russian Federation (UN Human Rights Committee): Counsel for complainants in a communication against the Russian Federation for violations of the right to life arising from the attack on the Kakhovka Dam in Ukraine (on a team led by Miles Jackson, instructed by Legal Action Worldwide and Truth Hounds).
- Miller v University of Bristol: Acting for Professor David Miller in appeal in the Employment Appeal Tribunal concerning the protection of anti-Zionist beliefs under the Equality Act 2010 (led by Zac Sammour, instructed by Rahman Lowe Solicitors).
- Caterpillar v Trade Remedies Authority / Liugong v Trade Remedies Authority: Acting for the TRA in the first Upper Tribunal appeals concerning the imposition of an anti-dumping duty after Brexit (on a team led by Philip Moser KC, instructed by Fieldfisher)

Before joining the Bar, Gianna worked as a public law caseworker at a leading legal aid firm, and as a research assistant at the Law Commission of England and Wales. In 2022 she was the Bonavero Fellow at the European Center for Constitutional and Human Rights in Berlin.

Gianna holds an LLB (First Class) from University College London and a BCL (Distinction) from the University of Oxford. Alongside her studies, Gianna worked as a research assistant in public international law and public law, and volunteered for a number of NGOs supporting migrants and refugees in the UK and Greece. She is fluent in German.

Gianna is committed to a pro bono practice.

Public Law

Gianna accepts instructions across all areas of public law and civil liberties/human rights.

Gianna's recent experience includes:
