Practice Overview

Hilary Heilbron now practises principally as an international arbitrator. With over 130 appointments as arbitrator combined with a distinguished career as a commercial barrister and King's Counsel she brings a wealth of experience and expertise to the resolution of arbitral disputes. She is widely recognised not only for her keen understanding and handling of the complex business and legal challenges that disputing parties face globally, but also for her strong command of the procedural skills necessary to conduct an arbitration efficiently and fairly.

She has been described recently as having a "stellar reputation" and being an "amazing arbitrator". She has recently been nominated as Senior Arbitrator of the Year in the Legal 500 Bar Awards 2025.
