Practice Overview

Sarah Ford KC was called to the Bar in 2002 and took silk in 2017. She is "extremely bright, hard working and absolutely across this area. She is extremely measured in her advice and able to guide clients through the complexities of some of the most technical areas of competition law." (Legal 500 2024). "An extremely persuasive advocate" (Chambers & Partners 2023), "[h]er advocacy is succinct, direct and fuss-free. She cuts to the heart of the matter efficiently, avoiding unnecessary diversions." (Chambers & Partners 2024). "Sarah is superb. She cuts through what she needs to cut through and brings it across to the Judge" (Chambers & Partners 2023). She was nominated as Competition Silk of the Year in 2022 and 2023 by Legal 500 and Competition/EU Silk of the Year 2022 by Chambers & Partners.

Sarah is frequently instructed in leading competition cases for both Claimants and Defendants and appears in the Chancery Division, Commercial Court, Administrative Court, Competition Appeal Tribunal, Court of Appeal and Supreme Court.

Sarah has excellent trial advocacy experience, having appeared most recently in trials in the CAT in the Hydrocortisone and Prochlorperazine appeals and in the High Court in Optis v Apple and Nokia v Oppo. Sarah also frequently appears in the Court of Appeal, with recent highlights including appearing for the Class Representative in the McLaren collective proceedings; for Infineon in Smart Card Chips and for BT in Le Patourel.

Sarah is instructed in numerous follow-on and standalone competition damages claims including in Citalopram for Arrow; Trucks for Volvo/Renault, Occupant Safety Systems for ZF and Smart Card Chips and DRAM for Infineon. She appeared for ABB in the High Court and the Court of Appeal in BritNed, the first cartel damages claim to reach judgment. She has appeared in appeals to the Court of Appeal in leading competition cases concerning mitigation in Ballbearings; limitation in DRAM and binding recitals/abuse of process in Trucks.

Sarah has a strong collective proceedings practice, being instructed on the Claimant side for the Class Representative in McLaren and for the Proposed Class Representative in BSV Claims Limited and on the Defendant side for JPMorgan in FX. She appeared in the Court of Appeal in BT's appeal in Le Patourel concerning whether proceedings should be certified on an opt-in or an opt-out basis.

Sarah is also regularly instructed in FRAND disputes, and appeared in the landmark Unwired Planet case in the Supreme Court. She appeared for Optis in its FRAND dispute with Apple and for Nokia in its FRAND dispute with Oppo.

Sarah has excellent experience in pharmaceuticals and life sciences and is presently instructed for Arrow in damages concerning citalopram; for Auden/Actavis in appeals concerning hydrocortisone and for Alliance Pharmaceuticals in appeals concerning prochlorperazine. She appeared on behalf of Actavis in the Competition Appeal Tribunal and the Court of Justice of the European Union in the paroxetine pay-for-delay appeals.

Sarah is also active in telecommunications disputes, both in the regulatory sphere and private damages actions. In addition to being instructed for BT in Le Patourel she appeared for Virgin Media in an appeal before the Competition Appeal Tribunal concerning leased lines and for BT in the Pay TV appeals.
