Practice Overview

Tony Singla KC is widely recognised as "one of the go-to silks at the Commercial Bar" (Chambers & Partners).

Tony is regularly instructed as the lead advocate in the High Court, the Competition Appeal Tribunal, and before arbitral tribunals. Tony is especially sought after for cases requiring extensive cross-examination of factual and expert witnesses. He is also an experienced appellate advocate and has appeared on numerous occasions in the Court of Appeal as well as in the Supreme Court and the Privy Council.

Tony represents clients such as FTSE 100 companies, investment banks and private equity funds, professional services firms, tech companies, and sports teams and regulators. Current and recent clients include: Aercap, Barclays, Citigroup, Dell, Deloitte, FIFA, Glencore, KPMG, Meta, Microsoft, PwC, Qualcomm, and Revolut.

Tony is recommended as a leading silk in Chambers & Partners and Legal 500 in seven fields: Banking and Finance, Civil Fraud, Commercial Litigation, Competition Law, Group Litigation, Insurance, and Professional Negligence. He has acted in many high-profile and high-value cases in each of these areas, and was recently featured as one of the top ranked barristers in The Lawyer's Top 20 Cases over the last ten years. In particular, Tony is one of the leading practitioners at the Bar in group litigation such as shareholder claims under FSMA and competition class actions.

The legal directories describe Tony as "one of the cleverest silks at the Bar", "an absolute genius", "phenomenally good", "absolutely superb", and "totally exceptional in every way". He has drawn particular attention for his advocacy ("as an advocate, he stands head and shoulders above almost all of his peers", "a super advocate", "an exceptional advocate", "incredibly good on his feet", "a formidable advocate", "a great cross-examiner"). He is also well known for being user-friendly (“absolutely fantastic to work with”, “extremely popular with solicitors”, “terrific manner with clients”, “super responsive and really positive to work with”).

Prior to taking silk, Tony was one of the leading juniors at the Commercial Bar. In 2014 he was awarded Commercial Litigation Junior of the Year at the Chambers Bar Awards. Tony was also featured by The Lawyer in its “Hot 100” and by Chambers & Partners as one of the junior “Stars at the Bar”.

Tony is the co-author of Accountants’ Negligence and Liability (2nd edition, 2021) and a contributing author of Competition Litigation: UK Practice and Procedure (2nd edition, 2019). Between 2006 and 2011, Tony was a Retained Lecturer in Law at Oxford University where he taught Contract Law and Competition Law.

Tony is a Bencher of Lincoln’s Inn, an elected member of the Bar Council, and he also sits on the Estates Committee of Marylebone Cricket Club.

Commercial

Tony is recommended for Commercial Litigation in Chambers & Partners and Legal 500. He is described in Chambers & Partners as “one of the go-to silks at the Commercial Bar”.

Tony is regularly instructed as the lead advocate in heavy applications and trials in the Commercial Court and Chancery Division. He is especially sought after for cases requiring extensive cross-examination of factual and expert witnesses.

Tony is also an experienced appellate advocate, having appeared on numerous occasions in the Court of Appeal and Supreme Court.

Tony has acted in many of the highest-profile and highest-value commercial cases in recent years. His notable cases are listed below by reference to particular practice areas. He also has extensive experience of acting in general commercial disputes concerning (for example) share and purchase agreements, shareholder agreements, and joint venture agreements. He has also acted in a number of breach of warranty claims. He is frequently asked to advise on issues of contractual interpretation, rectification, and force majeure.

Prior to taking silk, Tony was one of the leading juniors at the Commercial Bar. In 2014 he was awarded Commercial Litigation Junior of the Year at the Chambers Bar Awards, in 2018 he was nominated as Commercial Litigation Junior of the Year by Legal 500.

Arbitration

Tony has a substantial arbitration practice and is regularly instructed as the lead advocate in hearings before arbitral tribunals (LCIA, ICC, and other rules). He is currently instructed in a number of ongoing international arbitrations which are confidential. His past experience includes high-value arbitrations seated in London, Mauritius, and Lisbon. For example, he acted in Republic of Djibouti v DP World ($2 billion arbitration involving allegations of bribery and corruption in Africa).

Tony also has extensive experience of arbitration-related applications in the Commercial Court, including applications for interim relief under section 44, applications to set aside awards under sections 67-69 of the Arbitration Act 1996, and applications for stays under section 9 (for example Uconinvest LLC v Jysan Holding LLC & Ors (Re Jusan Technologies Ltd) [2024] EWHC 1532 (Ch)).

Tony also acted in Nomihold Securities v Mobile Telesystems Finance, a long-running enforcement dispute which involved an application to set aside registration of a $200 million LCIA arbitration award on the basis of fraud and an application for a worldwide freezing order in aid of execution of the award (which led to an appeal to the Court of Appeal on the scope of the ordinary course of business exception: [2011] EWCA Civ 1040).
